SACRIFICE TO PROGRESS

One of the Beauty Spots of the Campus had to be sacrificed to make room for the Memorial Science Building

Seventy-Eight Years of Progress at Assumption College

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE is celebrating this year the Seventy-Eighth Anniversary of its administration by the Basilian Fathers. When Father Dennis O'Connor of the Congregation of St. Basil arrived in the village of Sandwich in August, 1870, with three other Basilian priests and the magnificent sum of $300.00, he took over the administration of a school that had been conducted under other auspices from 1857.

The origins of Assumption College may be traced back to the return of the Jesuits to Assumption Parish in 1843. Father Pierre Point, the Jesuit pastor, was an exceptionally astute man and observed throughout his parish an appalling illiteracy and ignorance. His parish extended twenty miles along the Detroit River and Lake St. Clair and as far south as the Irish Mission of Maidstone; in addition the parish conducted missions in Belle River, Tecumseh, Stoney Point, Chatham, Walpole, Raleigh and Tilbury. The parish numbered some 3,000 souls who were almost exclusively French-Canadian in nationality.

Father Point immediately introduced a network of elementary French-speaking schools in his parish, establishing by 1846 thirteen schools with an average enrollment of 80 to 100 students. His schools were among the first elementary schools of any kind in Western Ontario and anticipated by several years the introduction of public schools supported by governmental taxation (1854).

He encountered considerable opposition from members of his flock who remained unconvinced that there were benefits to be derived from education commensurate with their cost and maintenance. The Civil authority also was rather hostile in the beginning, since the Ontario system of education under the direction of Dr. Egerton Ryerson was then only in the process of formation and the principle of denominational schools was not a matter of general agreement.

In spite of the faltering enthusiasm and latent antagonism that his project evoked, Father Point not only proceeded with his plans, but enlarged upon them. Recognizing the importance of secondary education, he was enabled to open a high school for girls in the parish presbytery in 1852 through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Beaubien of Detroit. (The first secondary school, or high school, was opened in the Windsor area in 1871 when the combined population of Windsor and Sandwich totaled 5,413.)

In 1855 a secondary school for boys was erected on the parish grounds and was opened in 1857. The curriculum of Le College de l'Assomption consisted of preparatory, commercial and classical (high school) courses. The staff included laymen teaching under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers. During its early years instruction was given through the medium of the French language.

* When Father Point and the Jesuits left the parish and the college in 1859, the school fell upon days of extreme adversity. Its survival was due principally to the indomitable zeal of Mr. Theodore Girardot who was successively teacher, dean and principal. Mr. Girardot was born in France in 1824 and devoted his life in Canada to the cause of education.

After heading the college for several years, Mr. Girardot as a layman began to feel unqualified to guide a student body largely preparing for the priesthood and so informed Bishop Walsh in London. The bishop asked him to recommend some religious congregation to replace him. Mr. Girardot suggested the Basilians because they were at the time one of the few bi-lingual religious communities in Canada. There was a French tradition in the community that had come to Canada from France less than a generation earlier; and, having become located in Toronto at St. Michael's College, there were persisting British and Irish influences. When Father O'Connor arrived in Sandwich, Mr. Girardot valiantly assisted him, even canvassing homes in the district for students. Freed from his duties at the college, Mr. Girardot was appointed public school inspector for North Essex, which post he held until his death in Sandwich in 1900.

In the next twenty years, 1870-1890, Father Dennis O'Connor proved himself a worthy successor of Father Point and Mr. Girardot. In the very first year of his administration a college course was introduced; and although the growth of the school was unspectacular, it was steady. From a total enrollment of 29 students in 1870, the College grew until its attendance reached 150 at the turn of the century.

By 1890 when Father O'Connor left Assumption College to become Bishop of London and, later, Archbishop of Toronto, the College had expanded to three times its original dimensions. To the old classroom building, the original unit opened in 1857 and still in use, were added the southern wing of the present Administration Building in 1875 and the central wing including the refectory and infirmary in 1884.

Early Progress

Father O'Connor's assistants during his early years at the College were Fathers M. J. Ferguson, M. Mungovan, D. Cushing (president of the College, 1890-1901) and Robert McBrady (president, 1901-1907), names that are rich with legend in the story of Assumption.

With the administration of Father Francis Forster (1907-1919), and Father Joseph Muckle (1919-1922), a new generation of Basilians took over and the pioneering age may be said to have passed. During these years the northern wing of the Administration Building in which the chapel is located, the gymnasium and the adjoining residence building were erected.

Undoubtedly, the most important event of this period was the agreement of affiliation of the college department with the University of Western Ontario, initiated by Father Fallon of the Diocese of London and completed in detail and signed in October, 1919. A summary of the terms of affiliation embraced in point 12 of the original document follows:

"The Assumption College shall constitute a College of Arts and as such shall enter into and form a part of the Faculty of Arts of the Western University; it shall enjoy the rights and assume the obligations common to all the affiliated colleges; it shall be represented in the Board of governors and the Senate and in the Council of the Faculty of Arts; its staff of teachers shall have equal standing and rights with the officers of instruction of the University College of Arts; its students shall be admitted to the degrees of the Western University and to the medals, scholarships and prizes offered by the University in the Arts courses; all in accordance with the Western University Act of 1908, chapter 145 in the Statutes of Ontario."

There were 47 students in the college department at the time affiliation was effected; in 1930 there were 116; in 1936, 345; in 1944, 305. As of 1947, the total enrollment including College, High School, Night School and Summer School reached 1570.

Succeeding Father Muckle, Father Daniel Dillon served as president from 1922 to 1928 and again from 1931 until his illness in the summer of 1932. The present classroom Building was erected during his first administration. Father Vincent L. Kennedy was president from 1928 to 1931 and Father Thomas A. MacDonald, from 1932 to 1940. Father Vincent J. Guinan, a graduate of the first class following affiliation of the College with the University, took office in 1940, the ninth Basilian president of Assumption College.

Father John H. O'Loane succeeded Father Guinan in 1946 and is now guiding the destinies of the college and its proposed expansion.

THE ST. FRANCIS XAVIER MISSION SOCIETY

Though this year has not been a record-breaker as far as the Mission Society is concerned, there was a great Mission interest shown on the part of a great many of the students. Our total collections for the year were close to the $1,500 mark, and our largest contribution was again the usual $1,000 to the Basilian Fathers' Mexican Missions.

The Student Executive of the Society did a real job of assisting a new Faculty Director in his attempt to fill the great vacancy left in our ranks by the departure of Mr. J. Enright to another Basilian school. Frank Shenk, John Rooney, and Dave Dingeman are especially to be commended for their efforts.

In February of this year, the Mission Society conducted a large-scale raffle, offering a beautiful table-model radio as first prize. The proceeds from this raffle gave several classes a large boost in the standings and upped the school total considerably. At the close of the raffle, just before the lucky tickets were drawn, the Society, on behalf of the students, presented to Father "Benny" Jacques a cheque for $100. Fr. Jacques, a former great of Assumption's football and baseball teams, was just returning to his Mission fields in China after a well-earned rest. He spoke briefly to the students, telling them that their prayers were just as effective, if not more so, in furthering Mission activities.

As usual, interest reached a new high during the annual "A" man contest. Large posters were hung in the rotunda of the school building, and campaign banners waved from every vantage point. Mr. Paulus again was the head judge in the poster contest, and a $5 prize was awarded for the most original and artistic work.

Next year's Executive was appointed and the names of the officers were revealed at the assembly closing the "A" man contest. John Rooney, Andrew Beck, Dave Dingeman, M. Laforet, and D. Zakoor promise to lead the 1948-49 Mission Society to new limits.

The High School Library

The Glory That is Assumption's

is this year being confirmed and expanded. This institution founded by men of God, to further His work, cannot but succeed. Evidence of the success of Assumption's efforts can be found throughout the world, from whence, through the Providence of God, those who are grateful to Him for Assumption, send help through prayer and material assistance to ever increase and strengthen their beloved Alma Mater.

This is a tribute to the fine, courageous men of the school who labor to turn out fine God-loving men for the world.

We, as contractors for the new Science Building, are proud to be associated with these men and hope that this new structure will be a worthy Memorial to their efforts to bring further honor and glory to God by their teaching "Goodness, Discipline and Knowledge."

ROSARY CRUSADE LAUNCHED

. . . Family Rosary Hailed Hope of the World . . .

Blessed Virgin Pleads for Rosary, Penance

In the last one hundred years, our Blessed Mother has appeared to men three times, and each time she has brought Heavenly gifts—a Heavenly message and a Heavenly weapon against evil.

The gifts are the thousands of miracles which have attended her coming.

The message is simple and realistic—Penance, Penance, Penance.

The weapon is a beautiful prayer: Mary's Rosary.

The Family Rosary is an endeavour to unite the family in holy prayer to the Mother in the Ideal Family with a prayer devoted to her alone. There is no glorified glitter in this campaign; it is just a whole-hearted attempt to restore the family to the devotion to the Virgin Mary.

The purpose of this campaign is to combat the growing communistic atheism which has reached tremendous proportions. The doctrine of the Communists in regard to religion is—NO RELIGION and with the spread of this creed, there is a constant falling away from the Church. The only way we can combat this is to pray to the Virgin Mary to restore the faith to those who have accepted Communism. Nothing but prayer can do it, and nothing but a family brought together to pray is more pleasing to the model Mother who can perform our request.

It is your duty to gather in your home, with your family, and beg the Mother Mary to shower down profuse grace upon our souls.

This commendable practice must continue, piling up and up, until they reach the heart of Mary who will then go to her Divine Son and beseech His grace for the intention of the Family Rosary Crusade.

A point to consider is that although Communism is the prime enemy of Religion, that does not mean that is the enemy of Religion alone. It is the enemy of everything which we have under our democratic policy. You can trace the downfall of our principles under the power of a force which believes that might is right. Once this totalitarian power controls our government, it means the end of our Religion, our justice, and then, our liberty.

So remember, "When you have the Family Rosary, there will be peace and security."

Fr. Peyton, Director of the Rosary Crusade, in the Diocese of London, is shown above talking with two members of the Reporter Staff during his recent visit to the school.

FIRST DIOCESE

The honor of being the first Diocese in the modern history of the Roman Catholic Church to have a Family Rosary Crusade organized on a diocesan basis is accredited to the Diocese of London, Ontario.

VARIETY SHOW

Variety Show

There were but two dramatic presentations this school year, "You Can't Take It With You" and "The Variety Show." As much has been said of the former in the "Reporter" perhaps a summary of the latter will suffice for the "Purple Raider."

The opening choruses of this year's Variety Show proved what can be done when Band and Glee Club are united.

Piano solos by Gerald Comeau, John Dolan, Jerry Teahan and Tom Schock, each with its own flavor, left a good taste in the mouth.

The song soloists Dick Maher, Richard Renaud, Bob Squire, Bud Morrell, Raymond Soulliere, Tom Meier, Al Sarkozy, Bryan Smyth with Ray Vincent and Wilf Kenny dueting and the First Nighters (J. Meade, F. Smith, R. Maher, T. Meier) quartetting, received well deserved applause.

The dancers, Tom Barrett heading the list, supported by R. Renaud, J. Dolan, R. Briggs, R. Harrison, T. Ray, E. Harb, R. Tonkin, and F. Montello added that certain quality of rhythm that head, legs, torso and feet can combine in producing.

Lucien Duyck charmed his listeners with several accordian numbers.

The Christopher Columbus escapade (Carl Renda and Jack Petz), The Haunted House (Bill MacDonald, C. Lawrence, Wm. Vahey, M. Mogge) and the dialogue of R. Renaud and R. Squire, were skits as original as they were entertaining.

Those two red-turbined and white-clad magicians (Tom Meagher and Jim Broughton) have the audience still guessing.

The imitations of Bob Morand, Bill Insley, and Steve Zam were convincingly real and had even a professional touch.

"The Road to Ballygarth" with J. Magin, R. Ouellette, F. Furlong, D. Wilkinson, R. Graveline, A. Sheridan and F. Zakoor was the most pretentious and subtle of the skits. The good performance of these boys really took us back to the Ireland of 1789.

The Senior and Junior Glee Clubs whose names are too numerous to mention gave unstintingly of their ability to their leaders, Mr. Menichetti and Mr. Donohue, C.S.B.

The Strange Encounter between D. Wilkinson and R. Tews was very strange indeed.

Louie's Hungry Five most ably conducted by Charlie Lawrence were humorous to be sure and their music so delightful and rhythmic that it set many a foot a-tapping. A great little act!

Jerry Gilboe as M.C. with his woolen-white coat, navy blue trousers, multi-colored necktie and red carnation did an impressive job. Paul Klebba and Ronald Klamt with tuxedos and white carnations in their lapels were as popular and indispensable as they were on the football field.

Finally many thanks are here rendered to Miss V. W. Leach, Jack Bickle, Mrs. Claude Arnold, Al Watson, and his associate make-up artists, to Mary Ann Varga, George Louckes and Joe Flood, Mrs. Dolihan, Barbara Birch, Mr. Pazik, C.S.B., as well as to all the boys who gave freely of their time and talent to make this production possible.

Dr. Thomas Edward DeGurse

RARE HONOR COMES TO ASSUMPTION OLD BOY FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

Michigan Medical Society honors Dr. Thomas Edward DeGurse as "Michigan's foremost family physician." This is the first time the society has conferred such an honor. Although "Just a country doctor," Dr. DeGurse has a life story that reads like a combination of Horatio Alger and Paul Muni, except that some of the chapters would be too fantastic for a movie. Nobody would believe it. Dr. DeGurse was born in Canada of a large family of ten children. He was only nine when his mother died and went to live with his sister, paying his way by doing chores. At 14 he was a hired man and lumber-jack; at 16, a surveyor's helper, he saved enough to get through Assumption College and College of Medicine. At 23 he opened his office in Marine City and began a story-book career. Today at 74 he is still a family doctor covering an area of 300 square miles.

BATTLE RIVER ICE—He is just all doctor—all family doctor but forever forward looking. He helped when Dr. Angus McLain removed the first appendix in St. Clair County; alone he performed one of the first major operations in Lambton County, Ontario, on a kitchen table.

Canadians in early years simply didn't have any doctors across the river opposite Marine City; so Dr. DeGurse took care of the people there, even though it meant struggling through the ice flows.

With no license to write prescriptions in Canada, he always took what drugs he could in his satchel and pockets. In case of need he brought a relative of the patient back across the river and wrote out a prescription.

Even the United States Public Health Service drafted Dr. DeGurse as an assistant surgeon to teach ship sanitation to Great Lakes Mariners. With his house backing up to the river, the Doctor still on occasions grabs his megaphone and bellows a conversation with the skipper of a passing ship.

Nobody knows how much he has given away in clothes and blankets to the needy patients or how much he has persuaded merchants to give. In 50 years Dr. DeGurse has acquired many honors, including, from the people of Marine City, a silver loving cup as tall as himself. But this time honor comes from the profession of Michigan. Dr. DeGurse, CONGRATULATIONS in the name of the executive and thousands of members of the Auxiliary!

The writer has read with avid interest of the excellent work of the different Chapters of our beloved Alma Mater's Alumni Association, and he feels that he is indeed fortunate having been permitted for several years past to be a member of a company which has as its sole aim the continued success of Assumption College, Windsor, Ontario. We seem to be living in a "Cycle of Crusades" not forgetting the Crusade nearest and dearest to our hearts, "The Crusade of the Holy Rosary of Our Blessed Mother."

While traveling about with a little group, soliciting new students, we do not forget the old timers, that is, who are now enjoying the creature comforts of life, and one of them may I say aptly named our little coterie "The Assumption College Crusaders." It is joyous music to our ears, to hear these old timers, all solid members of the Alumni, give credit for their success in life, to the training they received, while students at Assumption College under the watchful friendly eye of one of the greatest teaching communities of men in the world today, viz: The Good Basilian Fathers.

It gives me great pleasure at this time to list the Chapters, the name of each Chapter's President, and the cities respectively, in which chapters have been inaugurated. In each of these places we found loyal sons of Assumption now in action, giving their all, proud of the privilege and honor of serving, as well as calling their outstanding educational institution, of International fame—their beloved Alma Mater.

The Windsor Chapter (of which I am proud to be a member) was the first to come into being and is called The Mother Chapter. The LaSalle-Amherstburg and the Chatham Chapters though the newest groups of all, are never the less riding high in spirit and enthusiasm. How about your Chapter? How many young or old Assumptionites do you find in your area? Round them up, get into action and organize. Write Rev. E. L. Pokriefka, C.S.B., c/o Assumption College Auxiliary, 712-714 Majestic Building, Detroit 26, Michigan. He will supply you with instructions and a complete format for organization. Space will not permit the names of all the loyal sons of Assumption who are working untiringly for this most worthy cause, but I cannot refrain from tossing a few posies to such fellows as Ray Marcotte, Rene Chauvin (Past President), and Hugh Bondy, current President of the Windsorites; Andy McGuire (always active); Pat Jeakle of Detroit (never tiring); Phil Gignac, the dynamic personality who never fails to stir up his (Down River Radishers) to successful action; not forgetting Henry Hoberg, "The Minute Man," who lives under the eaves of Assumption, and is always ready to grab his fireman's helmet and make a run for action whenever he gets the "NOD." Join the colors, Assumptionites. How about your Chapter? The time is now.

MERCHANDISING

ACROSS CANADA and in many parts of the world, Windsor is known as the home of Ford of Canada's head office and plant, a large and important factor in Canada's trade. In and around Windsor, Ford has a particular importance for young people planning careers.

Since its small beginnings in 1904, Ford of Canada has drawn upon the classrooms in the Windsor area for many hundreds of its employees. Within its expansive plants are to be found promising, useful futures to satisfy a wide variety of ambitions and abilities. Skilled mechanics, office workers, upholsterers, electricians, designers, mechanical engineers—each an essential vocation in the automotive industry.

Doubtless many of you will find, as have hundreds of others before you, opportunities and futures with Ford of Canada.
